THANKSGIVING

We are very thankful for our wonderful community of children, parents and staff. We will hold our annual Thanksgiving Sing-Along tomorrow. Please invite your visiting friends and family to join us!

We are sorry that we did not let parents know that we decided not to hold a Thanksgiving lunch this year. The amount of work that it takes to put on a lunch for all seemed to be too much. However, returning parents have expressed their love for this event and some room parents may hold a pot-luck lunch in December, so look for information from the Room Parents.

USE THE CROSSWALK

Please remember that you and your child's safety are our highest priority when you are dropping off or picking up at Pacific Primary. We know that you are probably aware that pedestrian safety in the city is of great concern and that there have been several accidents around our corner in the past few weeks.

A neighbor had a close call this week as they drove past our school. A parent who had parked in the white zone, unloaded the children and crossed in the middle of the street instead of using the crosswalk. The neighbor was terrified that she almost hit the parent and children who were jaywalking.

Lynn and Belann take this situation very seriously and urge you to:

- Only cross the street in the crosswalk
- Only load children from the passenger side of the car.
- Do not double park.

AUCTION COFFEES

We will start our auction information coffees in front of the schools on the morning of December 2. Bring your questions about the donations, ads and greetings forms...we will brainstorm over caffeine.

PARENTING WORKSHOP

Is your child testing all the limits? Are you finding cooperation missing in action? Attend Lynn and Belann's first parenting workshop on Tuesday, December 2 to learn some new strategies. Sign-up in the classrooms if you plan on attending.
